

MRS. MOUNTFORD WANTS JUSTICE

Claims She Was Deeply Affronted by Judge of Juvenile Court.

WAS SENTENCED TO THIRTY DAYS IN PRISON

Woman Now Contemplates Filing of Suit for Defamation of Character.

Judge Willis Brown of the Juvenile court sentenced Mrs. John Mountford, who resides at 353 West South Temple street, to thirty days in prison on Saturday, but gave her the option of escaping the sentence in the event of her promising that her seventeen-year-old son John should report at Judge Brown's court every Saturday. Mrs. Mountford is shocked by the sentence and the indignities which she alleges were heaped upon her, and if she carries out her present intention it is probable that a suit will be filed against the Juvenile court Judge for defamation of character. Mrs. Mountford stated to a Tribune reporter yesterday that she had consulted two attorneys with reference to the matter and that they are investigating the law bearing on the issue. In the meantime John will report at court.

Wanted to Reform Him.
When a Tribune representative visited Mrs. Mountford yesterday she was huddled in her feelings over the notoriety she had attained and felt her position keenly. According to her statement, John, her son, has twice been arrested before the bar of the Juvenile court—once for telling an untruth to the school teacher, and the second time for assaulting a street-car conductor, who, she alleges, violently ejected him from the car. On the second occasion of John's arrestment, Judge Brown asked his mother if the boy was of a serious nature. His mother replied that he was a genial, jovial lad, and then the Judge, on the opinion that he should be sent to the industrial school. To this course Mrs. Mountford objected, and a compromise was made that John should report at court every Saturday.

An Affirmation and Denial.
This took place, Mrs. Mountford says, about six months ago. For five or six weeks John reported to the court, and he left school and found employment, and he now states that he was then excused by Captain Woods, the officer of the court, from making further reports. To this, however, the Captain entered a denial in court on Saturday, saying that he excused him only from attending school.

John Must Appear in Court.
On Thursday last Mrs. Mountford got a letter addressed to her by Judge Brown, in which he told her to report at court on Saturday morning. She called upon Judge Brown and consulted him with regard to the matter, and objected to the exercise of arbitrary supervision over her son. Judge Brown informed her that she was to appear in court with her son, and the conversation concluded.

Deputy Sheriff Takes a Hand.
Mrs. Mountford was busy in the performance of her domestic duties on Friday morning when, about 9:30, she was summoned to the door, there to be confronted by a deputy sheriff, who quickly informed her that he had a warrant for her arrest. Mrs. Mountford, who is a woman of no mean talents, expressed it altogether too mildly. She was too overwhelmed by utterance, eventually she consented to go with him, and then she realized that she again had to appear in the august presence of the Juvenile Judge.

Says Judge Insulted Her.
She had that interview on Saturday, with the result as stated above, but Mrs. Mountford adds that Judge Brown upbraided her for not appearing before the court on Thursday. Mrs. Mountford endeavored to explain to the Judge that she was a woman of no mean talents, and that she was a good body, but that his mother was the one who had blackballed him, or worse than that.

Mrs. Mountford Well Known Here.
Mrs. Mountford is the mother of six children, and was born and bred in this community. Her husband, James Mountford, is a switchman in the Rio Grande yards. Mrs. Mountford is a woman of no mean talents, and she is a good body, but that his mother was the one who had blackballed him, or worse than that.

A LABORER'S MEALS

Are All Right for Him, but Bad for the Professional Man.

A professional man writes from Chicago:

"The food question has been an all important one to me.

"Up to a year and a half ago I had been a victim of stomach trouble and a most constant constipation, for at least six years.

"I ate a laborer's meals and did almost no manual work at all. I was fond of fried foods, meats, fresh bread, hot biscuits, etc. Consequences—many trips to the doctor, disagreeable nauseous medicines, and no relief.

"About a year and a half ago I began to use Grape-Nuts food, living on it almost entirely. Friends wondered how I could, and wonder yet how I can make a few spoonfuls of Grape-Nuts take the place of the heavy meat courses in which I used to indulge. But wisdom is justified of her children. I have found in Grape-Nuts a perfect food.

"I have never grown tired of it yet, and I certainly have given it a good trial. And my constipation with its attendant ills has disappeared. My stomach has toned up so that I can eat almost anything, even at night, and have no trouble whatever with my digestion.

"Before I began eating Grape-Nuts food I used to find it difficult to concentrate my thoughts on my work or ward off restlessness after meals. Now the reverse is true, and I can settle down to brain work and complete my task in a workmanlike manner without becoming nervous or fagged out.

"These facts, as well as the circumstances that I never tire of Grape-Nuts food prove that there is something in it. It is to me, a breakfast food that is all that and not a mere accessory." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

BUSINESS MEN ARE JUBILANT OVER OUTLOOK

Real Estate Men Have Numerous Deals Pending, Several Near Consummation.

The outlook for general business throughout this week is considered to be exceedingly bright. Men identified with the various branches of commercial and industrial endeavor are feeling jubilant over the conditions, and predict that the second week of the new year will equal the good showing of the last week. Some business men claim that the heavy snow lying on the ground is affecting the trade of a number of lines, but that with its passing away and the recovery from the depressing effect of the recent holidays, things will live up and large dealings in all branches of trade will be recorded.

Real Estate Circles Quiet.

Considerable quiet prevailed in real estate circles Monday, but the inactivity caused no anxiety to the dealers. Their general business is exceptionally good and they are consequently pleased with the results. Many of these inquiries are from men seeking funds to launch in manufacturing and mercantile lines. Naturally, the real estate men are anxious to see the prospective buyers of such property to permit the announcement of their prospective consummation.

Inquiries Continue.

Inquiries to local real estate dealers from out-of-town parties continue to arrive in considerable numbers, and there is every likelihood that good deals will result. Many of these inquiries are from men seeking funds to launch in manufacturing and mercantile lines. Naturally, the real estate men are anxious to see the prospective buyers of such property to permit the announcement of their prospective consummation.

Local Demand for Property.

Locally there is a demand for Main street property, which demand is nearly as strong as it has been for some time. It is more marked at this time, and real estate men are making every effort to get a line of owners who are willing to sell at a figure within reason. There is also a pleasing demand for property on Third street, east and west of Main street, as well as in the vicinity of the railroad depots.

IN MEMORIAM

THOMAS RADCLIFFE

Died January 5, 1906.

At the curve home of eventful. The silent summons came. And the great soul of his hands and died. And passed to his endless fate.

Through the change and chance of shifting years. His genius was held command. And he left his smile and tears. At the touch of a master-hand.

In life he cherished his Art with pride. In death he served her still. And the great soul of his hands and died. And passed to his endless fate.

And a noble anthem in Utah's praise. Poured from the composer's soul. And they weathed his brow with the victor's laurel.

And now, in the hush of welcome rest. The spirit musically breathes. With the dead hands on the faithful breast. While the spirit the Father keeps.

And we listen in vain for the distant strain Of the music of far-off spheres. Where the great soul of his hands and died. And passed to his endless fate.

CHARLES HENRY STEVENSON.

NO NOTICE OF A TREASURER MADE

Members of Board of Education Hold Long Session Without Decision.

VACANCY FOURTH WARD IS NOT YET FILLED

Clubwomen Ask for Aid in Establishment of School for Delinquents.

Despite a lengthy session of the city board of education Monday night, not much was accomplished aside from routine business. It was expected that a treasurer would be elected and that the vacancy caused by the removal of H. C. Edwards from the Fourth ward would be filled, but both of these actions were carried over until the next meeting.

Fight on Treasurer.

After Oscar W. Moyle had been re-elected president, H. P. Henderson, vice president, and L. P. Judd, clerk, a spirited contest developed over the selection of a treasurer. S. A. Whitner, of Cornick's bank was a candidate, as was also Mr. Strong of the Utah National bank. The contest was a close one, but the latter institution, being capitalized for only $100,000, would not be able to carry the overdrafts at times required by the board, which occasionally amount to as much as $100,000. The matter was laid over until the next regular meeting, and it is expected that each candidate must satisfy the board of sufficient financial backing.

Vacancy Still Exists.

At the request of Mr. Thomas, the re-elected president, from the Fourth ward, the selection of a member to fill the vacancy caused by the removal of Mr. Edwards was not made. A committee of club women, headed by Mrs. C. S. Kinney, appeared to ask the aid of the board in establishing an institution for the care of delinquent children to supplement the work of the Morris school. The matter was referred to the committee on teachers and school work and the committee on school laws.

AMUSEMENTS

ORPHEUM THEATRE—Vaudeville.

If the management of the Orpheum continues to provide the same high class shows as that which opened the third week of the new house on State street Monday night, there is no doubt as to the success of the venture. All vaudeville bills have weak spots, and this is no exception. The management of the Orpheum is a programme varied and of decidedly high quality. Probably the strongest turn is that of the Orpheum, which is a very good one. It is seldom indeed that one finds comedies and comedies trained to such a high state of perfection, and in the Orpheum they exhibit an almost human intelligence. The scene painted by them is of the highest quality. The management of the Orpheum is a programme varied and of decidedly high quality.
